

Virtual worship bridges distance in Central Asia

Technology overcame distance to create a virtual worship meeting between two countries, according to Amy, a church planter in Central Asia. We were ushered into Sally's sitting room here in our city for our weekly worship gathering, Amy said. Sally's husband is working and living in another country in Central Asia, so we began to greet him, chat and make jokes.

Technology overcame distance to create a virtual worship meeting between two countries, according to Amy, a church planter in Central Asia. We were ushered into Sally's sitting room here in our city for our weekly worship gathering, Amy said. Sally's husband is working and living in another country in Central Asia, so we began to greet him, chat and make jokes.

Read more at: http://www.wec.com.au/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=36&Itemid=26.