

Religion popular topic among Latinos

Directors Bob and Bev Harvey speak about how the Spirit is working in Latin America. How do you reach out to people there and spread the gospel? Latin America, unlike Australia, generally talks about two major issues: politics and religion. It is generally easy to talk to people about God, the Bible and to pray with them. The Gospel has spread incredibly and there are literally millions of Christians, but they need discipling so they can become effective reproducers of the life of Christ within them. We need people to make disciples.
